FYI * Please do not touch or add flowers or rosaries to statues inside or outside church grounds, as they are leaving marks and destroying them. Thank you

Thank you from Sister Dorothy, Words are totally inadequate to express my gratitude to your for warm wishes, encouraging words and especially for your presence at Mass and the reception on Sunday. Thank you also for your lovely cards and flowers and generous gifts. St. Margaret's will always be in my heart and in my prayers. I am sure it will take me some time to realize I don't go to St. Margaret's on Sunday mornings. Pray that the adjustment to my new life is smooth and open to whatever the future holds. Hopefully, I will see you again at a future date after I "settle in" God Bless you

Mass Readings for the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A
The First Reading is taken from the Second Book of Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a. The account of Elisha and the woman was a minor incident in the life of this prophet, who worked greater miracles, but it is narrated to show that God rewards those who are charitable to his friends. —
The Sunday Readings

The Second Reading is from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 6:3-4, 8-11. St. Paul stresses that we are buried with Christ in baptism. We die with him to sin. Then we rise with him to a new life.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Remember Christ's promise: even a cup of cold water will not go unrewarded, every little helping hand we give to bring our fellowmen to heaven will help us, too, toward the same goal. Heaven is our real goal in life — it alone will satisfy all our desires and it alone will last forever.
